

CPA TIP NO. 55

BUSINESS SUCCESS STORIES ARE WRITTEN WITH THE HELP OF A CPA

Could this story be yours? When we opened our bakery, we were already accomplished in the kitchen. But not at running a business. So we went to our CPA. She looks at things from a 360-degree perspective, just like a trusted business adviser. We let our CPA focus on the business, so we can focus on being the best bakery in town.

CPA TIP NO. 55 Comply With All Employee-Related Regulations

Do your homework on all federal and state employee rules and regulations before you start hiring. Non-compliance can be a very expensive surprise. A CPA can help you through myriad important employee considerations so you avoid regulatory headaches and realize significant cost savings.
