

BUSINESS SUCCESS STORIES ARE WRITTEN WITH THE HELP OF A CPA

Could this story be yours? I've always loved taking care of children. So I decided to open a home child care business. I knew all about nap time, but nothing about making a profit. My CPA helps me year-round — budgeting, forecasting, keeping accurate records and much more. My CPA babysits my business, so I can take great care of kids.

To make your business #CPAPOWERED, call today and let's get started.

CPA TIP NO. 5 Look to Your CPA as a Trusted Adviser

You need a trusted adviser and knowledgeable business professional with vast resources, high-level training and a deep, personal commitment to generating positive outcomes for your business. A CPA is all that and more.

Brought to you by the AICPA.

© 2017 Association of International Certified Professional Accountants. All rights reserved. 22735A-312

cpapowered.org