

Katy serves as a Director of the Deloitte LLP Board, and a member of the Strategic Investment and Regulatory and Government Relations Committees. She previously was the Vice Chairman of the Board, chaired the Governance and Global committees and was a member of the Finance and Audit and Partner Earnings and Benefits Committees. She is also a member of the Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu Limited global board and chairs the Global CEO/Chairman Evaluation and CEO Compensation Committee.

A Tax partner with 29 years of experience, Katy is the Tax Chief Strategy Officer and the Managing Partner of the Business Tax Service line of Deloitte Tax LLP, and a member of the Tax Operating Committee and Deloitte Tax LLP Board. She has served both public and private company clients.

In earlier years, Katy was the Deloitte Tax U.S. Tax Clients and Markets Leader. She was a co-founder of, and then led, Deloitte Tax U.S. Private Client Services. Throughout her career, Katy has held led in many ways as both a national and a local Cincinnati client service partner. She is an active volunteer and Board member for several organizations and initiatives in her Cincinnati Community.

Most importantly, Katy and her husband Brad, who is a physician, are proud parents of two boys, Ryan age 22 and Luke age 18. Katy says her passion (after her family!) is helping others to reach their potential, make an impact and discover their leadership voice, since so many people helped her with these throughout her years at Deloitte.
