Student Sponsorship Form
2015 Advanced Personal Financial Planning (PFP) Conference

The Advanced PFP Conference is an excellent opportunity to expose accounting students to the career potential for CPAs offering PFP services by networking and attending sessions with the top CPA financial planners and experts in this discipline.

At the 2015 Advanced PFP Conference, we are inviting students and their professors to attend and participate. We will have several special events specifically for these students and encourage them to attend sessions that interest them, as well.

We would like to encourage CPA firms to participate with us in support of building the next generation of CPA financial planners by sponsoring accounting student attendance and activities at the conference. Sponsorship will give your firm visibility with the students and professors and you may even find your future hires.

Check the box(es) and indicate your sponsorship amount for one or more of these four sponsorship options ($350 minimum for each option):

☐ $__________  Student Breakfast with Barry Melancon: Numbers are limited; therefore this sponsorship option is first come, first served. This option will give your firm the opportunity to have one representative join Barry, the professors and the students for breakfast on Tuesday morning.

☐ $__________  Hospitality Suite for Special Events: This option will give your firm the opportunity to network with the students and professors in the hospitality suite.

☐ $__________  Offset Costs of Student Registration: Funds received will be applied pro-rata to all students. This option will also give your firm the opportunity to network with students and professors in the hospitality suite.

☐ $__________  Cover the Costs of Registration for a Specific University: The discounted student registration price is $329 and the professor price is $612. Your cost is dependent on how many individuals you cover. This option will also give your firm the opportunity to network with students and professors in the hospitality suite. Please complete or have the university complete the group registration form on the next page.

University you are contacting:  __________________________________________________________________

☐ I am interested in this option, but don’t have a university in mind (we will put you in contact with any universities that contact us.)

Contributions to any of the options above will include prominent signage highlighting your firm’s support of the next generation of CPA financial planners.
