AICPA NAMES RECIPIENTS OF 2006 PUBLIC SERVICE AWARD

*Robert F. Kevane, CPA of California, and Mountjoy & Bressler, LLP of Kentucky
Are Honored for Community Service*

NEW YORK (May 20, 2007) –Robert F. Kevane, CPA, of La Mesa, CA, and Mountjoy & Bressler, LLP of Louisville, KY, have each received the 2006 Public Service Award from the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA). Kevane received the individual recognition award. Mountjoy & Bressler, LLP, earned the firm recognition award. Both recipients were honored at the spring meeting of the Institute’s governing Council, now underway in Washington, DC.

Doyle Williams, Chair of the AICPA Awards Committee, presented both awards.

Kevane, owner of the Kevane Company, Inc. was cited for his deep commitment to his community. He has served on the boards of more than 40 local organizations, including Saint Augustine Catholic High School, the San Diego Blood Bank, the Boys and Girls Clubs of East County Foundation and the City of San Diego Affordable Housing Task Force. Kevane holds a bachelor of science from San Diego State University.

Mountjoy & Bressler, LLP was recognized for its dedication to corporate citizenship. Since its founding in 1980, its partners and employees have served in pivotal roles in non-profits throughout Kentucky. The firm encourages employee volunteerism and currently supports organizations such as the Special Olympics of Kentucky, Junior Achievement, American Cancer Society, Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, Gilda's Club and dozens of other notable charities.
