

Richard A. Lindsey, CPA
Zevac & Lindsey, LLC

Richard A. Lindsey, CPA, also known as the 'Renegade CPA,' is a small business tax expert, consultant, business coach, speaker and author who helps companies and their owners keep the money they've earned instead of handing it over to Uncle Sam. He has over 22 years experience as a CPA and 15 years of 'in-the-trenches' work before that in the family business.

With Richard you get someone who understands the concerns of individuals and small business owners, someone who is focused on taxes and how they affect you, someone who will explain what you need to know and what you need to do about it plain English.

Richard is the publisher of the highly regarded Taxing Times, author of Crazy Little Shorts for These Taxing Times and co-author of the best-selling book, Breaking the Tax Code, both in their second editions.
