

“You’re never prepared for divorce, either emotionally or financially. Now, I really need to talk to someone I trust about my taxes and finances.”

Life Changes. So Do Your Taxes.

For tax and financial advice based on unmatched knowledge, experience and education, ask a CPA.

- Graduated from college, often with 150 semester hours and a master's degree in accounting, finance or tax
- Passed the demanding Uniform CPA Examination
- Licensed by a state to practice
- Dedicated to CPA ethical standards
- Committed to 120 hours of continuing professional education every three years

Visit 360 Degrees of Financial Literacy at 360finlit.org/cpatax for more information.

