Facts About FinREC May 2020

A publication of the Financial Reporting Executive Committee and the Accounting Standards Team of the AICPA.

Purpose of FinREC

The Financial Reporting Executive Committee (FinREC) (formerly Accounting Standards Executive Committee) is the senior technical committee of the Institute for financial reporting. It is authorized to make public statements on behalf of the Institute on financial reporting matters without the clearance of either the Council or the board of directors of the Institute and to clear statements of other committees that include references to financial reporting positions.

The mission of FinREC is to determine the Institute's technical policies regarding financial reporting standards and to be the Institute's spokesperson on those matters, with the ultimate purpose of serving the public interest by improving financial reporting.

FinREC accomplishes this mission primarily by

- influencing the form and content of pronouncements of the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) and other bodies having authority over financial reporting standards, such as the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB), the Governmental Accounting Standards Board (GASB), and the Federal Accounting Standards Advisory Board (FASAB).
- seeking to identify, through cooperation with other AICPA bodies and others, financial accounting issues for which guidance from the FASB or others is needed.
- providing needed nonauthoritative guidance on financial reporting matters that authoritative-standards setters either are not expected to address or are not expected to address in a timeframe that FinREC considers desirable.

Meetings

FinREC generally meets four to six times a year. Meetings are open to the public except for sessions dealing with administrative or confidential matters, which are not open to the public. FinREC Planning Subcommittee (PSC) assists the chair of FinREC in the execution of certain strategic, administrative, and technical responsibilities. With the FinREC chair, the PSC establishes priorities for projects and monitors their progress. The PSC also clears GASB and FASAB comment letters issued by the State and Local Government Expert Panel.

Audit and Accounting Guides

The objective of audit and accounting guides is to deal with particular areas in financial reporting that require attention, such as financial reporting related to fair value, or with industries, such as the construction industry, that have specialized accounting practices, significant or unique accounting issues, or unique regulatory considerations.

Various committees or task forces of the Institute may draft and issue audit and accounting guides. However, descriptions of accounting principles and financial reporting practices in audit and accounting guides require the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the members of FinREC and ultimately represent the views of FinREC. Guides are subject to FinREC's full due process.

Note that the guides pertaining to nongovernmental entities are not authoritative sources of GAAP. The FASB's Codification is the single source of authoritative U.S. GAAP for nongovernmental entities.

Letters of Comment

FinREC is generally responsible for letters of comment to groups outside the AICPA, such as the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), the FASB, the GASB, the IASB, the FASAB, or other agencies or groups, on proposals that relate to financial reporting.

Public Statements

As a senior technical committee, FinREC is authorized by the Council to make public statements without clearance with the Council or the board of directors on matters related to its area of operations.

Members of FinREC

FinREC members by and large are members of the AICPA. The chair and members of FinREC are appointed annually by the chair of the board of the Institute, with the approval of the board of directors. The chair must be a member of the AICPA. The chair may appoint a vice-chair from among the FinREC membership and delegate certain of the chair's duties to the vice-chair. Each member would normally not serve more than three years, though the chair may serve as chair for up to three years in addition to service as a nonchair member. Former members who have been off FinREC for at least one year are eligible to become members again.
