Terms, Conditions and Guidelines for Service Organizations

The official AICPA SOC for Service Organizations – Service Organizations logo (the "SOC for Service Organizations – Service Organizations Logo") is provided herein. The SOC for Service Organizations - Service Organizations Logo is owned by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("AICPA"). The AICPA has established the following guidelines (the "Guidelines") that govern your display and use of the SOC for Service Organizations - Service Organizations Logo. In order to download and use the SOC for Service Organizations - Service Organizations Logo, you will be required to complete and submit the registration page, by which act you are affirming that you have read, understand and agree to comply with these Guidelines.

Before downloading and using the SOC for Service Organizations - Service Organizations Logo or displaying it on any website, you must read and understand these Guidelines. Please also note that these Guidelines are subject to change by the AICPA without prior notice. You are responsible for maintaining familiarity with the current Guidelines during the course of your usage or display of the SOC for Service Organizations – Service Organizations Logo.

Who may use the SOC for Service Organizations - Service Organizations Logo?

1. A Service Organization may use or display the SOC for Service Organizations - Service Organizations Logo, provided it has had at least one of the following three SOC for Service Organizations reports issued by a licensed CPA1:

(a) SOC 1® – SOC for Service Organizations: ICFR

SOC 1® reports are examination engagements performed by a service auditor - prepared in accordance with AT-C section 320, Reporting on an Examination of Controls at a Service Organization Relevant to User Entities’ Internal Control Over Financial Reporting. SOC 1 reports are specifically intended to meet the needs of entities that use service organizations (user entities) and the CPAs that audit the user entities’ financial statements (user auditors), in evaluating the effect of the controls at the service organization on the user entities’ financial statements.

1 In the attestation standards, a CPA performing an attestation engagement is ordinarily referred to as a practitioner. However, SOC 1®, SOC 2®, and SOC 3® engagements use the term service auditor rather than practitioner to refer to a CPA reporting on controls at a service organization.
The two types of SOC 1® reports are:

(i) Type 2 - report on the fairness of the presentation of management’s description of the service organization’s system and the suitability of the design and operating effectiveness of the controls to achieve the related control objectives included in the description throughout a specified period.

(ii) Type 1 – report on the fairness of the presentation of management’s description of the service organization’s system and the suitability of the design of the controls to achieve the related control objectives included in the description as of a specified date.

Use of a SOC 1® report is restricted to the management of the service organization, user entities, and user auditors.

(b) SOC 2® - SOC for Service Organizations: Trust Services Criteria
SOC 2® reports are examination engagements performed by a service auditor in accordance with SSAE No. 18, Attestation Standards: Clarification and Recodification, which includes AT-C section 105, Concepts Common to All Attestation Engagements, and AT-C section 205, Examination Engagements, and AICPA Guide SOC 2® Reporting on an Examination of Controls at a Service Organization Relevant to Security, Availability, Processing Integrity, Confidentiality, or Privacy using predefined criteria in TSP section 100, 2017 Trust Services Criteria for Security, Availability, Processing Integrity, Confidentiality, and Privacy (AICPA, 2017 Trust Services Criteria). SOC 2® reports can be issued on one or multiple Trust Services categories (security, availability, processing integrity, confidentiality or privacy).

The two types of SOC 2® reports are:

(i) Type 1 – A report on management’s description of the service organization’s system and the suitability of the design of the controls;

(ii) Type 2 – A report on management’s description of the service organization’s system and the suitability of the design and operating effectiveness of the controls.

Use of a SOC 2® report is generally restricted.

(c) SOC 3® - SOC for Service Organizations: Trust Services Criteria for General Use Report
SOC 3® reports are examination engagements performed by a practitioner in accordance with SSAE No. 18, Attestation Standards: Clarification and Recodification, which includes AT-C section 105, Concepts Common to All Attestation Engagements, and AT-C section 205, Examination Engagements, and AICPA Guide SOC 2® Reporting on an Examination of Controls at a Service Organization Relevant to Security, Availability, Processing Integrity, Confidentiality, or Privacy using the predefined criteria in TSP section 100, 2017 Trust Services Criteria for Security, Availability, Processing Integrity, Confidentiality, and Privacy (AICPA, 2017 Trust Services Criteria). A SOC 3® report is a general-use report. It does not contain a detailed description of the system and the tests of controls and results thereof, like in a SOC 2® report. SOC 3® reports can be issued on one or multiple Trust Services categories (security, availability, processing integrity, confidentiality or privacy).

Because SOC 3® reports are general-use reports, they can be freely distributed.
